Royal Here and Everywhere

You are worn out, tired, can't put the energy you desire into your duties. Well, then, you must try something that will overcome this feeling and restore you to perfect health.

Pleasant
From childhood we are taught to respect the curative features of herbs. Our grandmothers used them, and were, as a rule, versed in the art of preparing remedies from various plants

We have a preparation that is of the old-fashioned type—purely vegetable, made of herbs with wine. For a general tonic to produce vigor and strength, you cannot find a better one.

Wine.
For malarial disorders, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, loss of energy, it is a true panacea.

Royal Bitters is the name,
They gave me at my birth,
From Royal no one need refrain,
Its use will surely bring mirth.

Central Union Church Notes.

Friday night saw many plans made by the officers and teachers of the Bible school. A library committee was given numerous things to do, a music committee will secure a leader and an orchestra and a new singing book, a concert committee will begin to prepare for Children's Day, and Mrs. Elizabeth Waterhouse will choose her Home Department visitors and have a long list of shut-ins and mothers and others studying the lesson at home half an hour or more each week and so being members of the school.

The department so efficiently superintended by Mrs. R. W. Adams, studying the junior quarterlies, becomes the Junior department, while those in the large room under sixteen, now studying the intermediate quarterlies, will be called the intermediate department.

A number of the largest classes will soon be divided and given a chance to grow.

New registration cards were explained and a combination report and collection envelope was adopted.

Frequent half-hour meetings to study interesting matters about children and teaching will be held at 7 o'clock Wednesdays.

Nicely furnished rooms at the Popular House, 154 Fort street, from $1.00 per week up.

If you are fond of pictures, drop in and look over the fresh lot of Copley Prints, Carbons, and London Prints, covering over fifty subjects of the very latest publications.

Expectation Sits in the British Gate

London, Feb. 21.—The Morning Leader says:

The crossing of the Tugela river was scarcely opposed but that is not to say fierce resistance may not be looked for before the Onderbroek works are negotiated.

A high authority agreed yesterday with the opinion expressed in these columns that two-thirds or three-fourths of General White's force will be available for active operations any time within a week.

"We cannot see how an advance through Natal can be made before Charleston and Van Reenan's pass are secured. As for the question of General Buller's invading the Transvaal, a practical difficulty exists. Our information is that his transport is utterly insufficient unless the Boers oblige him by fighting along the railway."

"We look for one fight about Pieter's station and then the departure of the commandos of Free State for Drakensburg and the Transvaal for Majuba."

"Nothing is doing in North Cape Colony and the greater part of the Boers apparently have retired to fight in their own state."

"Expectation sits in the gate to know the result of the chase after General Cronje."
